

1. The first part of the report is a general statement of the purpose of the study. This is followed by a brief review of the literature on the subject. The next section is a description of the methods used in the study. This is followed by a presentation of the results of the study. The final section is a discussion of the results and their implications.

Inventor No. 2 Information

Inventor No. 3 Information

Inventor No. 4 Information

Correspondence Information

1

Application Information

Title Line One::	LOCKOUT MECHANISM FOR AEROSOL
Title Line Two::	DRUG DELIVERY DEVICES
Formal Drawings?::	No
Application Type::	Utility
Docket Number::	015225-005910US
Secrecy Order in Patent Appl.?::	No

Representative Information

Continuity Information

This application is a::	Continuation-in-part of Provisional
> Application One::	60/208,896
Filing Date::	June 2, 2000

60208896